

Here Comes Santa Claus

With the Spirit of Freedom & the Candy Bomber Crew

The Famous Candy Bomber Aircraft is Coming to Dare County Regional Airport

The Candy Bomber Crew will reenact the famous 1948/1949 Candy Drop over Berlin with the original Douglas C-54 Spirit of Freedom. The Spirit of Freedom dropped handkerchief parachutes filled with candy to the children during the Berlin Airlift when the city was cut off from receiving supplies.

Thursday, December 14

The C-54 will arrive in Dare County

Friday, December 15

School children tour the plane

Saturday, December 16

Plan Pull Fundraiser for Dare Education Foundation

Sunday, December 17

The C-54 will participate in the Wright Brothers Flyover Celebration and will have two reenactments of the candy drop:
6 & Under at 1:00 PM
Ages 7+ at 1:30 PM

Santa lands onboard the C-54 at 2:00PM and children will be able to visit and have their picture taken with Santa

